ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

After a half a decade of constant touring and producing, it's safe to say Kadosh's growth has been truly remarkable. Yet he remains deeply rooted in the underground values of the city of Tel Aviv, where for years he fine-tuned what he felt was the truest form of forward-thinking house & techno music.

These days he regularly crisscrosses the globe playing at some of the planet's leading spots. A typical weekend can be Blue Marlin in Ibiza, Nitsa in Barcelona, Fabric in London or Watergate in Berlin. The Americas have swiftly fallen under his spell as well, with LATAM playing host to his dancefloor wizardry on a regular basis. Having seen him play some major south American clubs and festivals like SXM in the Caribbean and Bar Americas in Mexico.

In between it's Frau Blau Music, his own imprint, which is constantly breaking new ground with a steady flow of releases while holding label nights at choice locations around the world. His "Kadosh Invites" events, meanwhile, continue to expand and create memorable nights with his favorite artists.

Kadosh's studio output has been steady and top notch, with a string of EP's, remixes and collabs on a slew of acclaimed labels such as Innervisions, Disco Halal, Watergate and Live at Robert Johnson, to name but a few. In 2023 he also released his debut album on Stil vor Talent, including collaborations with Rodriguez Jr. and soul legends Stereo Mc's, amongst others. It was a varied and eclectic affair, showcasing his consistently versatile approach.

Kadosh's journey is a reminder that success in the music industry is not merely about talent, but also about perseverance and dedication. His story remains a shining example of the transformative power of electronic music and the unlimited possibilities facing an artist who dares to chase his dreams.
